COLORADO COLLEGE LIBRARY
COLORADO SPRINGS, COLORADO

Opening 1

ABOVE: Sophomore Aimee Hull leads freshmen Patrick and Emily during their Streetwise trip to IHS. Streetwise is a program to introduce freshmen to volunteer opportunities in Colorado Springs.

LEFT: Pre-orientation was tried for the first time this year at CC. Participating freshmen were introduced to backpacking and camping, as well as other new students.

TOP: Even Freshman know to avoid Rastall if possible. Parents and students enjoy a picnic on a beautiful September day.

RIGHT: New students and parents get a chance to talk with returning students, as well as other freshmen, during an orientation picnic outside of Worner center.

ABOVE: Juniors Levi Heidrich and Jackson Latka move into the new Edith Gaylord Building of the Western Ridge Project.

BELOW: Senior Jennifer Cross assists students signing up to work on publications at the Cutler Publications recruitment meeting.

LEFT: Two first-years, Scott Reis and Jesse Herrera, get ready to loft their beds in Loomis.

BELOW: A student's room in the process of moving in. To think...it will be a mess again in just a couple of weeks.

LEFT: Senior, Mr. Squirrel, knows his way around the campus as well as any other student, and he is willing to give anyone a tour for the price of a nibble of one's lunch.

Homecoming

ABOVE: Alumni and parents look on as the CC football team moves on to capture victory against the Westminster College Blue Jays, 16-12.

CC and the Great Outdoors

Students Having Fun in the Mountains

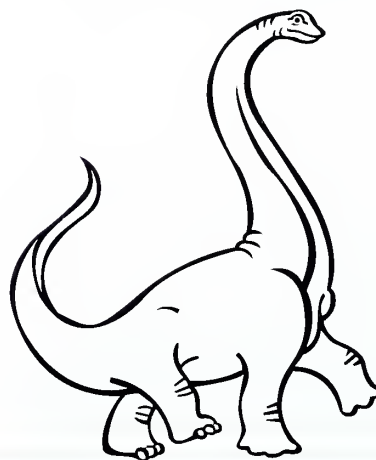

Ashly Lawrence, Jessica Matthews and Hillary Allyn in Moab over a block break. Students often travel to the mountains and desert to hike for block breaks.

Amy Klein and Aimee Hull at Garden of the Gods in the fall. CC is close to Garden of the Gods, and students often go for a hike or a bike ride.

Rae-Anne Hayes excavates a Camarasaurus first block break. She traveled to Wyoming during block break to dig up dinosaur bones.

Guys and Girls

Co-Ed Life at CC

Chad Schonewill and Tiffany Robertson get close on a cool night. Chad and Tiffany sitting in a tree, K-I-S-S-I-N-G!!

Students spending time together in the Slocum Lounge by the piano. Nothing can compare to a friendly duet.

Ryan Olson and Melina Masterson work together on the Catalyst. Long Thursday nights together create lasting friendships.

Out on the Quad

What do CC Students do on a Sunny Day??

Anyone for a round of golf? Or maybe some practice on the quad with tennis balls? Have you heard that a ball travels farther at higher altitudes? These guys have decided to take advantage of that.

Students playing catch in front of Loomis. There is always a frisbee or ball being thrown around the quad. Heads up!

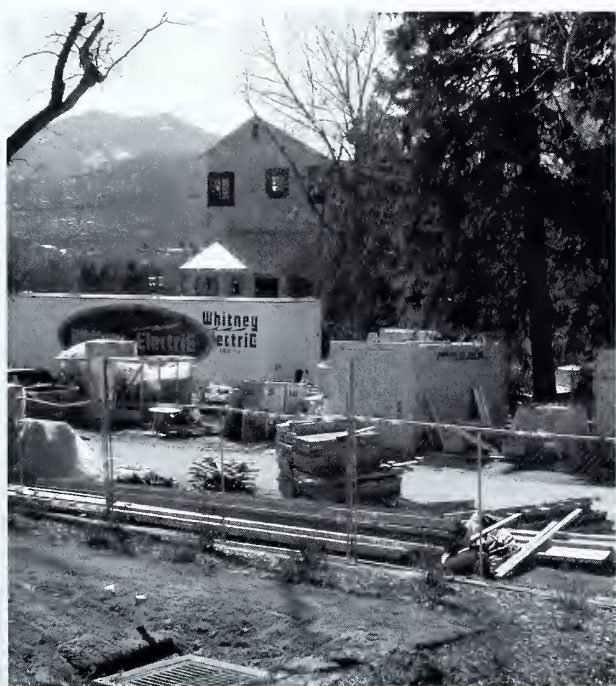

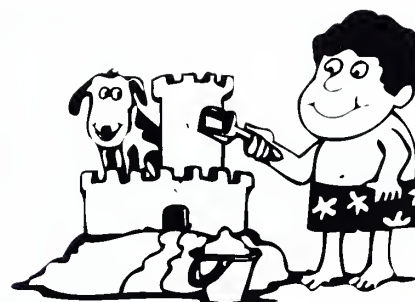

On a spring day two girls decide to spend time outside, playing the guitar. On campus you can often hear drums, a guitar, or other music.

On a beautiful day, many hang out outdoors. Others work on their skating moves. Take your pick.

Western Ridge Construction

The Western Ridge Project began last year and is continuing until fall, 2001... supposedly. With some major and minor setbacks, the new apartments have simply been fields of construction this year. Building H was opened in fall of 2000 and upperclassmen were very excited to live there. In a couple years, will older students even recognize CC??

F

With three shutout victories in its final four matches, Colorado College's NCAA Division I women's soccer team proved itself to be a worthy opponent. The Tigers, who defeated the University of Iowa (4-0) and University of Wyoming (3-0), finished an impressive 13-7 season in 2000. The 13 wins this season are the most for CC since 1991. Women's soccer had an excellent season and is ready to tackle next year's difficult schedule.

“One of the Western Collegiate Association’s best defensive teams throughout the mid- and late 1990s, Colorado College expects to be strong inside its own blue line again in 2000-2001. If the Tigers can generate a little more offense this season, they can reasonably expect to move up a notch or two in the WCHA standings, and challenge for an NCAA play-off bid.”

What shall we say about Mike?

*The utterly impractical, never predictable,
Something irascible, quite inexplicable,
Strange blend of shyness, pride, and conceit,
And stubborn refusal to bow to defeat,
He's spoiling and ready to argue and fight,
Yet the smile of a friend fills his soul with delight.
His eyes are the quickest to well up with tears,
Yet his strength is the strongest to banish your fears.*

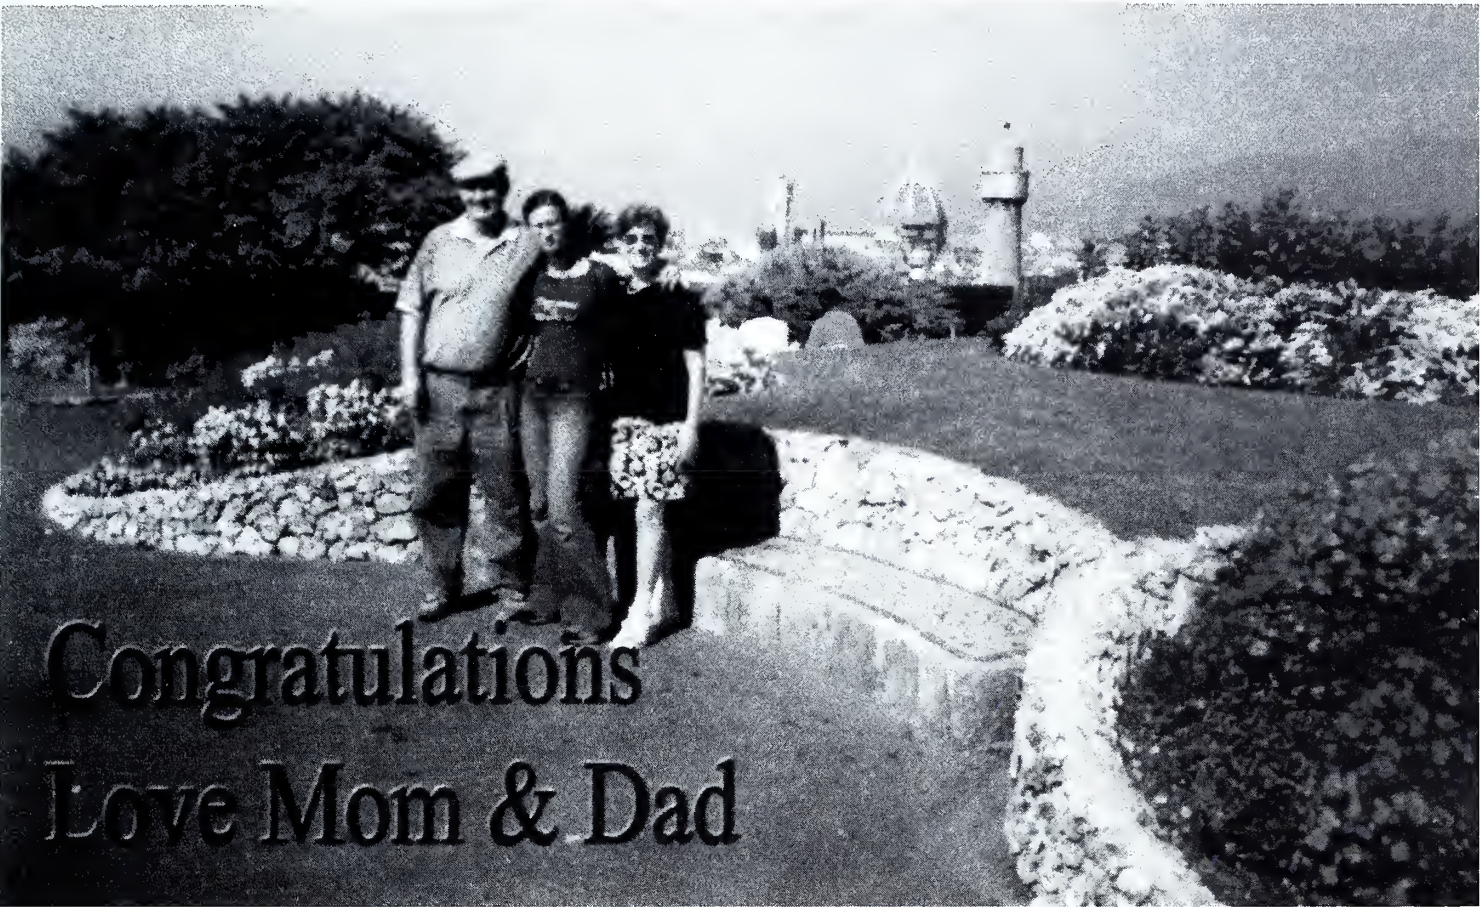

*He's wild and he's gentle, energetic yet serene.
He's proud and he's humble and follows his dream.
He's a poet and minstrel; his emotions are strong.
He gives voice to his passion in poems and songs.
In love with the Beatles, Madeski, Marin and Wood,
And he'd play with Garcia if only he could
He's enamored of beauty wherever it lies,
Be it ocean, mountain top, river or sky.
He's loving, sentimental, filled with ideals,
And there's never a doubt just how he feels
He's one of a kind, who stands in a crowd
But mostly he's a loving son who makes his parents proud.*

We love you. Mom, Dad, Aimee

Dearest Brandon,

What a wonderful four years you have had at Colorado College. Many new friendships that will last a lifetime, challenging academia to prepare you for a world full of opportunities, and travels that have both excited and educated. You are emerging from CC with the confidence and knowledge to positively affect all those you will interact with in the years to come. Please remember to be kind, caring, fair, and honest in any path you choose. We are so very proud of the man you have become.
